

SOAP Web Services in Java

Ian Darwin

A few non-techie terms thrown in for good measure.

ACROSS

1. It describes the entire service
4. Java API for SOAP
8. Micro Edition (abbr)
9. Color often contrasted with Ruby
11. Logical blk addressing
12. Common form of XML namespace
13. It takes over the world in a lot of SF movies
14. The X in XML
16. File format for web deployment
17. Part of man's 3-piece suit
18. The underlying protocol, secured
20. They keep two giants talking
21. Char. in GTA franchise
23. How we introduce a namespace name in XML
25. The "other" style of web service
26. Planning out a distributed arch.
28. What Javadoc shows you
29. Java instantiation keyword
30. Java API for XML Processing (abbr)

© Ian Darwin

DOWN

1. Abbrev for what course is about
2. Class we get from parsing an XML file
3. Draft brew favored by some developers
4. Use this to test early and often!
5. File format for interchange
6. Annotation used on SEI
7. The interface describing a service
9. API for converting XML to/from objects
10. Class that does badly due to timezone issues.
15. It describes a set of XML documents
16. Obsolete part of many URLs
19. A lot
22. Common data interchange format
24. It is neither simple nor a protocol
25. Ret. on investment
26. Syst. Analyst
27. Paul Bunyan animal